

Interchange opens a new foreign exchange office at Designer Outlet Parndorf

Interchange Austria is pleased to announce that it opened a new foreign exchange office on 15th May at McArthurGlen Designer Outlet Parndorf, one of the largest Designer Outlets in Central Europe located only 30 minutes away from Vienna.

Interchange provides foreign currency exchange and also tax refunds for travellers coming from non-EU countries, and this will significantly expand the scope of services that McArthurGlen Designer Outlet Parndorf offers to its international customers, who come from all over the world. Non-EU customers, in particular, will be able to get an immediate tax refund in a currency of their choice as well as being able to change money directly in the centre.

Mario Schwann, Centre Manager at McArthurGlen Designer Outlet Parndorf, said:

„It is particularly important for us to be able to offer our customers an optimal scope of services and we are therefore pleased to have established a new partnership with Interchange, a currency specialist. With an increasing number of customers at our shopping mall coming from outside the EU, Interchange extends our service portfolio with an additional and very useful and attractive offer. From now on our customers can easily change money and claim their VAT refunds right on the spot when they are done with their shopping.”

Daniel Pajak, Managing Director of Interchange in Austria, added:

„By establishing a new partnership with McArthurGlen, we are strengthening our market leader position in Austria, and by offering our services in this convenient location, which is increasingly popular with international visitors, we are making a logical step by adding to our existing successful operations at Vienna Airport and the city centre.”
