

NEWS

Interchange opens in Malaga, Spain

The Interchange Group is pleased to announce the opening of a new exchange office in Malaga, Spain, one of Andalucia's most important cities and the heart of the Costa del Sol. This new opening brings the number of Interchange exchange offices in Spain to four, adding to the Group's successful operations in Barcelona, Madrid and Granada.

The new Interchange exchange office is located on Calle Puerta del Mar 7, right in the centre of Malaga, and near to all of the main attractions. In addition to foreign exchange services, it also offers Western Union transfers and ATM services.

Talking about the new office, Max Heerger, the Country Manager for Spain said:

'We are delighted to be able to open in Malaga, such an important destination and the heart of the Costa del Sol tourist industry. We expect this new branch to be very successful and are happy to be ready for the upcoming tourist season.'

For more information about Interchange in Spain, contact info@interchange.es

Ends.